FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Cook, Barkett, Ponder & Wolz welcomes new attorney Matthew D. Glenn

(March 15, 2016 – Cape Girardeau, MO) Cook, Barkett, Ponder & Wolz is proud to announce the addition of new attorney, Matthew D. Glenn, to the Cape Girardeau law firm.

Prior to joining Cook, Barkett, Ponder & Wolz, Mr. Glenn was a trial attorney for Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company where he served as lead counsel on numerous jury trials involving personal injury cases including construction/maintenance defects, auto and commercial truck collisions. Further experience includes business litigation and product liability encompassing drug recalls, pharmaceutical errors and chemical exposure.

“Matthew brings exceptional trial experience in personal injury law. We are excited to have someone with that level of expertise on our team at Cook, Barkett, Ponder & Wolz,” said attorney Phil Barkett Jr.

Glenn received his Juris Doctor degree from Washington University School of Law and his Bachelor of Arts from Presbyterian College.
